Verse-1

Jenny's crying in her room again just like the night before,
She had a fight with her son again, and it went to far,
Maybe he needs a man around the house,
A strong soul who can help us work it out.

God made one of two it's true, and one made more.
But one divided and left as two stood at the door,
And every days been a bitter reminder,
how her dreams and her family were shattered.

Chorus

Jenny don't give up,
cause there's hope for your broken heart,
Jenny, Some ones in love with you,
Jenny you need a helping hand,
God knows you've done the best you can,
Jenny, Some one understands.

Verse-2

Jenny walked of her room,
She said son I know what you're going through,
I know your lonely, Lord knows I'm lonely too.
We gotta remember there's someone who's strong,
There's someone with us who knows what's going on.....
